METRO ORGANIZATION FOR RACIAL AND ECONOMIC EQUITY

Ninth Annual Imagine Banquet

Rev. Dr. William Barber Keynote speaker

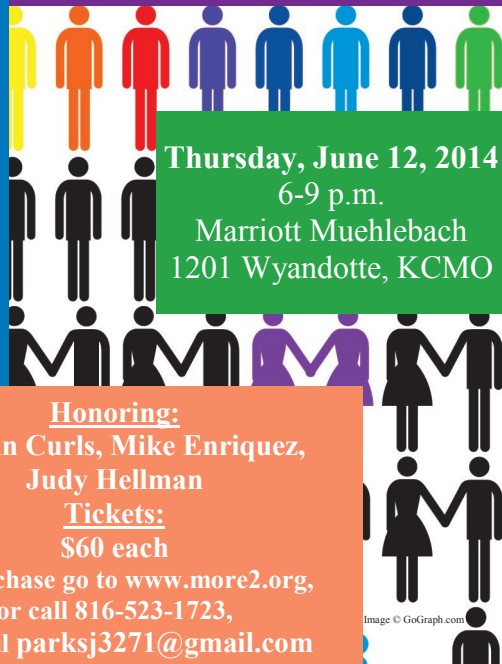

- President, North Carolina NAACP
- Pastor, Greenleaf Christian Church Disciples of Christ, Goldsboro, NC
- Chairman Rebuilding Broken Places Community Development Corporation, which has developed or inspired over seven million dollars in community development
- HIV/AIDS Initiative, Leadership Development, and Wall of First recognizing African American and Men and Women First.
- Stood with and spoke on behalf of educational advocates for funding low wealth schools.
- Served on the National Community Economic Development Board.

We is the most important word in the social justice vocabulary. The issue is not what we can't do, but what we CAN do when we stand together. With an upsurge in racism/hate crimes, criminalization of young black males, insensitivity to the poor, educational genocide, and the moral/economic cost of a war, we must STAND together now like never before. —Rev. Dr. William Barber
