The annual MORE^2 banquet brings together people of faith from across the metropolitan area for an evening of fellowship, reflection and call to action.

- MORE^2 is about long term solutions to problems of race, poverty, education, transportation and social injustice.
- MORE^2 is about building relationships that demonstrate our interdependence.
- MORE^2 is about a bright future for all our children.
- MORE^2 is about building a better metro Kansas City for all.

An Equity Partner reception with Jim Wallis will be held at 5:45 at the Downtown Marriott Tower.

Banquet tickets $40 each; reception tickets $25 each.

Call 816-808-6604 or email leadership@more2.org to order tickets. Tickets must be purchased by June 1, 2008.

Jim Wallis is the founder of the Sojourners Network, editor of Sojourner's Magazine, and author of eight books including God's Politics and the newly released The Great Awakening. He is a public theologian, international commentator on religion and public life, and communicates with the public through his daily blog at www.GodsPolitics.com.
